

PRESS RELEASE

32nd National Convention of Mechanical Engineers & a National Seminar on “Indian Manufacturing Industries-Challenges & Opportunities” at Engineer Bhawan, Doranda, Ranchi

The Institution of Engineers (India), Jharkhand State Centre, Ranchi is organizing a National Seminar themed “Indian Manufacturing Industries-Challenges & Opportunities” supported by MECON LIMITED on the occasion of the 32nd National Convention of Mechanical Engineering Division Board on 10th & 11th December, 2016 at Ranchi, India.

The 32nd National Convention of Mechanical Engineers is a national level Mechanical Engineers meet organized by The Institution of Engineers (India) and this time this is being organized by Jharkhand State Center of IEI at Ranchi. The national Council members from Mechanical Division board members of IEI and all Mechanical Engineers working in various organizations across the country have participated in the convention. In this Convention, Division board members met & chalked out next course of action in the field of Mechanical Engineering.

On the second day of the seminar, total 14 technical papers were presented from different organizations on technology innovations, product development, project management, and waste management from MECON, CET, RDCIS, TATA STEEL, CMPDIL etc. All papers are of high technical quality and thought provoking.

The valedictory session was chaired by Shri P. Saidev Executive Director, CET, SAIL as Chief Guest. Chief guest emphasized on the challenges being faces by the Indian industries to implement new technology in their existing plant. Brief summing up of Sessions was done by Dr. S. Chatterjee, Chairman Technical Committee. Vote of thanks was given by Er. M. R. Kumar, Hony, Secy. IE (I), JSC and welcome address was given by Shri Sanjay Sen, Chairman IE (I) JSC. All members of organizing committee including Shri Subrata Mukherjee, DGM, MECON LIMITED, organizing secretary was felicitated for organizing such high quality technical seminar.

(Subrata Mukherjee)

DGM, MECON & Organising Chairman